

Professional obligations

NZCER supplies tests only to an appropriately qualified person on the understanding that:

- Every precaution should be taken to ensure the confidentiality of tests and test scores.
Access to test materials must be limited to qualified
- persons with a responsible, professional interest who agree to safeguard their use.
Test users are asked to report the unauthorised use of
- tests and urged to protect the value of tests by keeping all components securely stored so they will not become available to unauthorised persons.
- NZCER's interpretation of the Privacy Act 1993 is that candidates are entitled to know, if they so request, all scores relating to their personal test performances. Our strong recommendation is that the release of test scores should be accompanied by sufficient interpretive detail to enable the client to understand the scores provided.

- Registered Test Users are expected to purchase and use tests according to the following guidelines:
 - The Code of Ethics for Psychologists Working in Aotearoa New Zealand 2002
 - Guidelines on the use of Psychometric Tests, prepared by the New Zealand Psychologists board
 - The Treaty of Waitangi, Tiriti o Waitangi
- Approval to purchase may be withheld or withdrawn if there is any violation of these principles.

PTS is committed to accurate, professional and ethical assessment of individuals, and uses their registration process to help ensure assessments are only supplied to appropriately qualified test users.

PTS requires verification of qualifications prior to purchase. We reserve the right to amend and update our qualification requirements for registration to reflect current best practice and publisher requirements without prior written notice.

Advice provided to individuals, seeking registration, about further training is provided in good faith. PTS does not guarantee registration as a result of completing any training course and applicants need to consider this before undertaking any training.

Our registration process is used for internal purposes only.
